RBC WEALTH MANAGEMENT'S GALLI EARNS ACCREDITED WEALTH MANAGER DESIGNATION

San Francisco, July 25, 2011 – Marina Galli, Senior Vice President – Financial Advisor at RBC Wealth Management in San Francisco, has earned the firm's internal, professional designation of Accredited Wealth Manager (AWM).

By earning the designation, Galli demonstrated extensive knowledge of the firm's wealth management process, including concentration in the areas of estate and trust planning, insurance solutions, and advanced investment strategies.

In partnership with the Academy of Multidisciplinary Practice, Inc., the AWM program offered by RBC Wealth Management is structured to provide curriculum that will enhance Financial Advisors' wealth management expertise and improve their ability to deliver superior wealth management services to affluent clients and prospects. The program also offers high-level insight into ways that a Financial Advisor can collaborate with other professionals to create better, more unified wealth strategies for clients.

"Wealth management encompasses all stages and aspects of a client's financial health," said Galli. "Completing this program enables me to provide a greater depth of service to my clients – providing each of them with a well-rounded, wealth management strategy."
