RBC WEALTH MANAGEMENT AWARDS GRANT TO THE SALVATION ARMY

Augusta, Georgia May 17, 2017 – The RBC Foundation - USA announced that it has awarded a $3,000.00 grant to The Salvation Army, according to Gray Jackson of the Augusta office, who presented the check today.

The grant will be used for the Job Skills Training Program.

“At RBC Wealth Management, our culture is deeply rooted in supporting our communities,” said Gray Jackson. “We strongly believe in being a trusted partner to both our clients and our community, and our partnership with The Salvation Army helps strengthen that commitment.”

The mission of the RBC Foundation - USA is to improve the quality of life in the communities where we do business by supporting non-profit organizations that make a positive difference. The Foundation focuses on three core areas: youth education, human services, and arts and culture.
