RBC WEALTH MANAGEMENT AWARDS GRANT TO THE AUGUSTA SYMPHONY

Augusta, Georgia – The RBC Foundation - USA announced that it has awarded a $2,500 grant to the Augusta Symphony, according to Gray Jackson, Senior Vice President – Financial Advisor in the firm's Augusta office.

The grant will be used to support the Education and Community Outreach program.

“At RBC Wealth Management, our culture is deeply rooted in supporting our communities,” said Jackson. “We strongly believe in being a trusted partner to both our clients and our community, and our partnership with the Augusta Symphony helps strengthen that commitment.”

The mission of the RBC Foundation - USA is to improve the quality of life in the communities where we do business by supporting non-profit organizations that make a positive difference. The Foundation focuses on three core areas: youth education, human services, and arts and culture.
