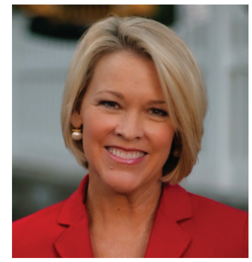
Massachusetts Millionaire-ess: Say and do the right things



Thursday, December 7, 2017 at 6 p.m.

Learn responsible money mindset guidelines to teach your family. If you've "arrived," learn how to best sustain your wealth for generations to come. We'll also be joined by the talented, Emmy Award-winning journalist and former Channel 5 news anchor, Heather Unruh. She'll offer us tips on being heard and how to communicate most effectively in all facets of your life.

Life Hacks for Your Family's Health & Wealth

Thursday, January 25, 2018 at 6 p.m.

Learn the top life hacks for your pocketbook and family. We'll cover being a college savvy parent positioning your child for maximum financial aid and offers; optimizing you or your parent's Social Security benefits; and angles on how to best protect your family. Then, we're bringing in an authority on all things health related: energy, weight loss, stress release, sleep and more. She was on the Today Show and we're bringing her to you to hear her quick natural fixes.

Warning: Fun swag will be handed out.

Putting Your Best Foot (in cute heels) Forward

Thursday, February 22, 2018 at 6 p.m.

Learn what you ought to pay attention to when it comes to your finances and what common financial and investment mistakes to avoid. Next, learn how to best market yourself from the woman who literally wrote the book on personal branding. Learn how to position yourself effectively for your career and how to brand yourself even when you are off the clock. Lastly, we'll have a stylist in to keep you looking fab in the midst of the winter drab.
