RBC Wealth Management is pleased to announce that Andrew Jacobitz has been named to the 2018 Financial Times Top 400 Advisors list in the U.S. The advisors on this list represent an elite group at national, independent and regional broker-dealers and were selected from nearly 1,500 advisors who met the qualifications. It is impressive to note that this year, the average FT 400 advisor manages over $1.5 billion in assets.

Please join us in congratulating Andrew on this noteworthy honor.

Non-deposit investment products offered through RBC Wealth Management are not FDIC insured, are not a deposit or other obligation of, or guaranteed by, a bank, and are subject to investment risks, including possible loss of the principal amount invested.

In 2018, the Financial Times Top 400 Award was based on information gathered regarding 1,500 financial advisors, of which 26% received the award. This represents less than 1% registered persons. The award is based on the following criteria: the individual is a FINRA registered representative; assets under management; experience and professional designation.

This award does not evaluate the quality of services provided to clients and is not indicative of this advisor's future performance. The financial advisor does not pay a fee to be considered for or to receive this award.
